A Call For Oversea Workers.

An emergency call has come to the war work council of the Y. M. C. A. for 700 additional workers to be sent overseas for work with the American, French, Italian and Russian armies. Vermont is urged to furnish at least ten men as its quota of the number needed. These men are to be between the age limits of 31 and 50 and must be loyal supporters of the government. Besides secretaries who have had association experience, there is need of expert bookkeepers, stenographers, and auto mechanics. Ministers, professional and business men can fill many of the positions. Of course it is men of established Christian character and of proven ability that are needed of the secure men who will be ready to sail January I.

This call affords another opportunity for most needed and valuable service on the part of men who can fill the positions indicated. The state committee of the part of men who can fill the positions indicated. The state committee of the part of men who can fill the positions in this matter and therefore requests that any person who feels inclined to consider this call will communicate with the acting state secretary, W.
